Be a part of the 6th Spring Midwest Filipino Arts Camp

Armas De Mano Filipino Arts Academy

Join us for the 6th annual Midwest Filipino Arts Camp 2009. Join your host Guro David Greco, an Instructor and Midwest Representative for various styles of Filipino Arts in the Midwest as he invites practitioners from all styles and systems of study to this spectacular event. We will continue our dual teaching sessions to keep the action live, and provide the new student the opportunity to learn the basics without feeling overwhelmed. Learn the Arts of Kali/Arnis/Escrima. And as always, no previous experience is required.

If you have wrap-around safety goggles, feel free to bring them. Participants have found them to be of benefit in the past to avoid any potential eye injuries.

Camp Instructors

Guro David Greco (Host) has been training in the Filipino Arts for 15 years and a recognized instructor in various systems of Filipino Arts. As the founder of the Armas de Mano Academy, Guro has held the Midwest Filipino Arts Camp over the past 6 years with support of students from all over the country.

Guro Pat Kelly has been training in the Filipino Arts for over 15 years. Pat has studied The arts of Kali, Moderns Arnis and Serrada Escrima to name a few. He will be sharing his knowledge of these styles and is well respected by anyone who has the privilege to study under him.
